Features in the new Teams

The current Teams app wasn't built in a day, and the new Teams won't be either. Many of the features you know and love from classic Teams are already in the new experience, but others—like breakout rooms and 3rd party apps—are still being worked on. Check out what's available and what the team is still working on. This list will be updated on a regular basis.

What's available

- Activity feed
- Chat
- Calls, including regular calls and Teams-to-Teams calls
- Meetings, including meeting start notification, custom backgrounds, and PowerPoint Live
- Teams and channels, including the new channels experience
- Support for multiple work accounts and tenants
- Downloading, uploading, and viewing files, as well as the Files tab in chats and channels
- Apps, including 1st party apps, such as Approvals and Tasks, and Microsoft 365 apps, such as Microsoft Viva

What's being worked on

- Mac, VDI, EDU, and web platforms
- Government clouds (GCC, GCC-High, DoD)
- Advanced calling features, such as call queues and reverse number lookup
- Advanced meeting features, such as breakout rooms and 7x7 video
- Teams and channel creation, cross-posting, and channel announcements
- Search in chats and channels
- Files app, 3rd party apps, and Line of Business (LOB) apps

The image shows a screenshot of the Microsoft Teams application interface. The main window displays a team named 'Allgemein' with a search bar at the top. A dialog box titled 'Update policy' is open in the foreground. The dialog box contains the following information:

- Name: Global (Org-wide default)
- Description: Default policy for users who aren't assigned to a policy.
- Allow public preview: Follow Office Preview
- Use new Teams client: Microsoft controlled
- Not enabled
- Users can choose (highlighted with a blue arrow)
- Microsoft controlled

At the bottom of the dialog box are 'Apply' and 'Cancel' buttons. In the bottom right corner of the Teams interface, there is a toggle switch labeled 'Testen Sie das neue Teams' which is currently turned off. An orange arrow points to this toggle switch.

Sensitivity labels - Extended capabilities for sensitivity labels to control meeting settings normally controlled by the meeting organizer. These capabilities include new settings to control lobby, chat, chat copy, presentation, and recording functions.

Watermarking - Enforced through a sensitivity label. Watermarks display the email address of a meeting participant, which is useful for protecting confidential information shared in meetings.

End-to-end encryption - Enforced through a sensitivity label. End-to-end encryption provides increased security for meetings that require a higher level of protection.

- Meeting templates - Used to control meeting settings that the meeting organizer normally controls. With templates, you can create consistent meeting experiences in your organization and help enforce compliance requirements and business rules.
- Meeting themes - Allows your organization to extend their visual identities across the meeting experience. You can set up and create meeting themes for a variety of business units and departments within a single tenant.
- Custom meeting backgrounds for organizations - You can create and define custom meeting backgrounds that are then available to your end users with a Teams Premium license.
- Custom together mode scenes for organizations - You can create, customize, or accept custom together mode scenes for meetings that are then available to your end users with a Teams Premium license.

Who this license is intended for

Do I really need it?

Mhh – starting with some Microsoft statements

External participants in Virtual Appointments don't require a Teams Premium license to benefit from Teams Premium advanced Virtual Appointments.

For intelligent recap, all meeting participants need a Teams Premium license to benefit from this feature.

For live translation (for captions), advanced meeting protection, and advanced webinars, if the meeting organizer is licensed with Teams Premium, meeting participants (including guests and external participants) don't need the Teams Premium license to benefit from these premium features.
If an attendee is licensed with Teams Premium but the meeting organizer isn't, that attendee will still be able to access live translations.

For advanced meeting protection, and advanced webinars, if the meeting organizer is licensed with Teams Premium, meeting participants (including guests and external participants) don't need the Teams Premium license to benefit from these premium features.

At least ... and now...

Simple breakdown who can benefit from Team Premium

Frequent meeting
organizers (team leads,
customer facing team

Corporate presenters

Financial, Legal or compliance
departments.

And some work for Admins

Using end-to-end encryption on meetings up to 50 participants.

Adding watermarks to meetings.

Adding sensitivity labels.

Preventing copy and paste in meeting chats.

Using organization customized backgrounds.

Using organization customized Together mode scenes.
• Admin must create the custom Together mode scene.

Being assigned a custom policy package.

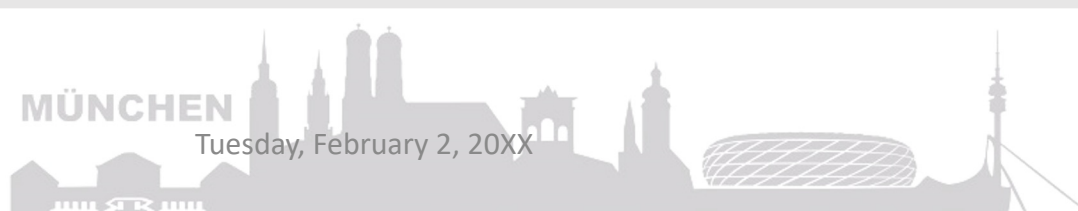

Using organization customized meeting templates.

Seeing organization customized branding.

Using eCDN for Live Events.

Using RTMP-In.

Customizing Virtual Appointment lobby rooms with branding.

Where do I find my Rol

Yes or No, that is the question

Rol not clearly visible !

I do not see any cost vs. usability benefit rectifying the price. Especially that some features are removed from the standard license. This would decrease the Rol.

Some Rol can be calculated from:

- Content / IP labelling and protection
- Webinar (e.g. registrations capabilities/ management, green room) – SMS notification
- eCDN (network performance improvements) (not outside MS tenant/network)

This is my personal opinion...

- Meeting experience
- Security and protection
- Administration and Support

The screenshot displays a Microsoft Teams meeting interface. The main content is a slide titled "FY 21 Sales Review" which features a horizontal timeline with three segments: "Aug 2019" (green), "Oct 2019" (teal), and "Future" (purple). Below the timeline, there are three columns of text detailing "Experience", "Models", and "Data connect" for each period. A dark notification box in the lower right of the slide area says "You left the meeting". The right-hand side of the screen shows a vertical menu with options: "Video setting", "Table of contents", "Meeting details", "Transcript", and "Comments". At the bottom of the screen, the Teams meeting toolbar is visible, including icons for chat, mute, video, and a list of participants.

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Teams interface during a 'Green Room' session for a 'Van Arsdel Product Launch' event. The top navigation bar includes icons for People, Chat, React, Q&A, Notes, and More, along with controls for Mic, Camera, and Share. A yellow 'Start meeting' button and a red 'End meeting' button are visible on the right. The main area features two video feeds: Daniela Mandera on the left and Charlotte de Crum on the right. A notification box above Charlotte de Crum's video reads: 'Attendees waiting. Start the meeting when you're ready and attendees will be let in.' On the right side, the Q&A panel is active, showing a pinned question by Charlotte de Crum: 'Hello and happy Wednesday. Welcome to Van Arsdel product launch! We are excited to have you here as we unveil our new product. Please ask quest... see more'. Below this, a question by Aadi Kapoor asks: 'How do you envision this product growing with the user base?'. The interface also shows a 'Comment on event' button and a 'Be the first to like this' prompt.

Sensitivity Label für Teams Meetings

Settings for Teams meetings and chats

These settings apply to all Teams meetings that have this label applied.

ⓘ If you select a setting below, the options you configure will be enforced when the label is applied to a meeting. Users won't be able to change the setting in Teams. If you don't select a setting, users will be able to select it themselves when creating a Teams meeting.

Meeting settings

These settings apply to all Teams meetings that have this label applied, including channel meetings and those scheduled in Teams or Outlook. Applying a label to a meeting is available from 'Meeting options'. Learn more about these options

Control who can bypass the lobby ⓘ

Only people who were invited

Allow dial-in users to bypass the lobby

Control who can present

Only the organizer and co-organizers

Control who can record

Control whether meetings are recorded automatically

Control end-to-end encryption for meeting video and audio ⓘ

If selected, you won't be able to record meetings automatically or control who can record.

Apply end-to-end-encryption

Control watermarks ⓘ

Apply watermark to shared content

Apply watermark to everyone's video feed

Chat settings

These settings protect sensitive content by restricting user actions in individual, channel, and meeting chats for all teams that have this label applied.

Control meeting chat

Only during meeting

Prevent copying chat content to clipboard

Some attendees will be blocked from copying messages from the meeting chat. Also, additional steps are needed to prevent copying chat content from meetings created in Teams channels. Learn more
